

It is refreshing to listen to the radio with my children and parents and not have to worry about some politically oriented d.j. offer his un-solicited opinion and then the possibility of some off-colored comment. XM radio offers that comfort to me.